6. (Confidential - LLM) Met with Messrs. Montgomery Winkler and Eric Silberstein, in the office of Representative Charles M. Teague (R., Calif.), and reviewed with them a letter from a constituent who is scheduled for a UNESCO assignment in Latin America and, among other things, offered to "act as eyes and ears for CIA." I said the Agency would not be interested and suggested the problem of conflict of interest, which apparently didn't bother Mr. Winkler. I indicated that we did debrief U.S. citizens traveling abroad on occasion and if there were no intervening problems it may be best for their constituent to call on our representatives following the completion of his assignment and at that time give us whatever information he thinks would be of value to his Government. I also suggested to Mr. Winkler that he may want to contact the Department of State and/or the FBI on this for their thoughts.
